E-Mail Services

We support virtual electronic electronic mail services with our own equipment and we also as an option resale e-mail services for Tucows/Opensrs. With either of these services you can receive and send email using your own domain name [1].

- We use opensource [2] solutions on our servers to provide custom solutions like http://www.sendmail.org/ [3]. This is a service that is already included as part of many of our other internet services.
  For help with our email services contact us and also reference the page on email [4]:
